

When My Blest Lord Will Come Again

James McGranahan: 1840-1907

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody in the treble clef begins with a quarter note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5. The bass clef accompaniment starts with a half note G3, followed by quarter notes A3, B3, and C4. A measure rest is shown above the treble staff at the end of the system.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It features a treble clef and a bass clef. The melody in the treble clef has a measure rest at the beginning of the system. The bass clef accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm. A measure rest is shown above the treble staff at the end of the system.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. It features a treble clef and a bass clef. The melody in the treble clef has a measure rest at the beginning of the system. The bass clef accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm. The system ends with a double bar line.

When my blest Lord will come again,
I will be saved from all my pain,
With all the saints I'll follow Him,
O praise the Lord!
O praise the Lord! O praise the Lord!
With all the saints I'll follow Him,
O praise the Lord!

When I shall see Him face to face,
And rule with Him thru endless days,
I will rejoice and sing His grace,
O praise the Lord!
O praise the Lord! O praise the Lord!
I will rejoice and sing His grace,
O praise the Lord!

When I meet Him before the Throne,
My sufferings then will all be gone,
The joy of victory will be won,
O praise the Lord!
O praise the Lord! O praise the Lord!
The joy of victory will be won,
O praise the Lord!

In that day I will testify
That nothing with Christ's life can vie,
When gloriously caught up to the sky,
O praise the Lord!
O praise the Lord! O praise the Lord!
When gloriously caught up to the sky,
O praise the Lord!

May we in our Lord's side e'er hide,
Be always one and ne'er divide,
That His heart may be satisfied,
O praise the Lord!
O praise the Lord! O praise the Lord!
That His heart may be satisfied,
O praise the Lord!

O come, our King, O come, dear Lord!
Receive us by Thy promised word,
And give Thy victors their reward,
O praise the Lord!
O praise the Lord! O praise the Lord!
And give Thy victors their reward,
O praise the Lord!
